Stay on Track

Joshwin Greene, Diane Monchusap, Yukino Nagasawa, John Thach, Yuan Xie

Problem

- Many students have a difficult time staying on track and not getting distracted with so much technology around them

- Procrastination and developing bad habits

Results / Findings

- Focusing on creating an intuitive design led to both positives and negatives

- Prototype was well-received overall, barring some minor functionality issues

- Providing help / documentation would have been beneficial

Next Steps

- Add more documentation

- Gather more feedback in order to determine what areas should be improved
